

Illustrations

Figures

1.1. Blue solar panel for connected to a home in Kalobeyei, Kenya.	24
1.2. Old generator, Kakuma, Kenya.	26
1.3. Extension cables, chargers and connectors in a home in Kakuma, Kenya.	28
1.4. Cooking equipment in a refugee home in Kakuma, Kenya.	30
1.5. Kitchen garden in Kigeme, Rwanda.	31
1.6. Charcoal for sale in Kigeme, Rwanda.	32
1.7. Household cooking goods for sale in Kakuma, Kenya.	34
1.8. TV connections surrounding refugee homes in Kakuma, Kenya.	36
1.9. TVs and fan in Kakuma, Kenya.	40
1.10. Solar charging shop: inside, with the appliances charging in Kigeme, Rwanda.	42
1.11. View from behind households that do not have lighting in Kakuma, Kenya.	46
2.1. Electrical products such as batteries, torches, light bulbs and radios for sale in a shop in Kakuma, Kenya.	55
2.2 Market street showing connecting wires on the left for some businesses in Nyabiheke, Rwanda.	56
2.3. Solar-powered phone-charging technology in Nyabiheke, Rwanda.	57
2.4. A shop using M-PESA mobile money and strip lighting in Kakuma, Kenya.	62
2.5. Milk-bar café and shop using solar power, Nyabiheke, Rwanda.	64
2.6. Mobile phones being charged inside a shop in Kakuma, Kenya.	66
2.7. Cinema connections, supporting wires and sound system in Nyabiheke, Rwanda.	68

2.8. Signs for computers and mobile-phone repairs in Kakuma, Kenya.	71
2.9. 'Solar panels warehouse' supplying shops in Kakuma, Kenya.	74
3.1. Solar streetlight in Mahama Rwanda.	85
3.2. Norwegian Refugee Council electrical-training centre: practice board in electrical class in Kakuma, Kenya.	87
3.3. Appliances and medical equipment using power in the health centre in Kigeme, Rwanda.	89
3.4. Generator providing power for community centre in Kakuma, Kenya.	91
3.5. Electricity connections overhead in Kigeme, Rwanda.	93
3.6. Energy appliances in an office in Kakuma, Kenya.	94
3.7. Laptops in use at a food-distribution site in Kakuma, Kenya.	96
3.8. Health centre: appliances that were not working, chest fridge for vaccines with temperature monitor to show the range within which vaccines should be kept, Nyabiheke, Rwanda.	102
3.9. Generator equipment in Nyabiheke, Rwanda.	103
4.1. Stacks of firewood at the firewood-distribution point in Nyabiheke, Rwanda.	109

Table

3.1. Operational and public energy users and provision mechanisms commonly observed in refugee camps in Kenya and Rwanda.	81
---	----