
CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	viii
Introduction. Understanding Historical Lessons Klas-Göran Karlsson and Maria Karlsson	1
1. On Historical Lessons: Theoretical and Analytical Perspectives Klas-Göran Karlsson	10
2. Phronesis and Historical Lessons: Ethics, Politics, Praxis Björn Badersten	38
3. “Historylessness” as a Lack of Historical Learning: A Conceptual Approach Johan Stenfeldt	55
4. Christianity and Crisis: Religion and Ideology in Modern Europe Jayne Svenungsson	76
5. Representing Rivaling States, Remembering Munich: Learning from History in Diplomacy Christer Jönsson	94
6. Topographies of Terror: Or How to Read Landscapes in Twentieth-Century East Central Europe Karl Schlögel	112
7. The Reparative Quest: Can “Doing History” Further Reconciliation in Post-Soviet Russia? Nanci Adler	130
8. Dark Lessons: The Holocaust between Dilemmas of Representation and Learning from the Past Maria Karlsson	154
9. Mediating the Darkest Lessons of History on Film: The Case of the Polish Film Hatred Barbara Törnquist-Plewa	173

10. “We Are Appalled to Have These False Beliefs Associated with Our Campus”: Holodomor , Trigger Warnings, and Free Speech at the University of Alberta Per Anders Rudling	192
11. Bandera Reaffirmed: Scrutinizing Lessons of a Nationalist Symbol in Struggling Ukraine Eleonora Narvselius	227
Conclusion. Historical Lessons in History and History Culture Klas-Göran Karlsson and Maria Karlsson	257
Index	269