

Contents

Introduction. Theorizing Social Im/mobilities in Africa Joël Noret	1
Chapter 1. Inequality from Up Close: Qur'anic Students in Northern Nigeria Working as Domestics Hannah Hoehner	27
Chapter 2. 'Born Free to Aspire'? An Ethnographic Study of Rural Youths' Aspirations in Post-Apartheid South Africa Fawzia Mazanderani	49
Chapter 3. Great Expectations and Uncertain Futures: Education and Social Im/mobility in Niamey, Niger Gabriella Körling	70
Chapter 4. 'Precarious Prosperity'? Social Im/mobilities among Young Entrepreneurs in Kampala Laura Camfield and William Monteith	91
Chapter 5. 'Here Men Are Becoming Women and Women Men': Gender, Class and Space in Maputo, Mozambique Inge Toedten, Arlindo Uate and Lizete Manguenze	110

Chapter 6. The Dynamics of Inequality in the Congolese Copperbelt: A Discussion of Bourdieu's Theory of Social Space Benjamin Rubbers	132
Chapter 7. Crisis, Work and the Meanings of Mobility on the Zimbabwean-South African Border Maxim Bolt	155
Chapter 8. Domestic Dramas: Class, Taste and Home Decoration in Buea, Cameroon Ben Page	178
Conclusion. A Multidimensional Approach to Social Positionality in Africa Joël Noret	199
Appendices to Chapter 4
Appendix 1: Sample Characteristics	213
Appendix 2: Summary of Entrepreneurs' Directions of Social Mobility	222
Index	225