

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	viii
Acknowledgments	x
Introduction. Care in a Time of Humanitarianism: Stories of Refuge, Aid, and Repair in the Global South Arzoo Osanloo and Cabeiri deBergh Robinson	1
Part I. Refuge, Law, and Empire in the Global South
Chapter 1. Patriation: Conceptualizing Migration after Empire Pamela Ballinger	35
Chapter 2. Quezon’s Hospitality: Transitional Asylum and Humanitarian Intimacies during Philippine Decolonization, 1935–1941 James Pangilinan	51
Chapter 3. Burma Evacuees: R. Sanyassiah, Postwar Return, and Displacement in Modern South Asia Emma C. Meyer	68
Chapter 4. Khao-I-Dang Refugee Camp: Local Hosts and Hauntings of the Third Indochina War in a Transit Zone Kbathaleeya Liamdee	84
Chapter 5. A “Lucky Escape”: Ethnic Cleansing and What Happens When International Humanitarianism Fails Kathie Friedman-Kasaba	98
Chapter 6. Benevolent Arts: The Persistence of Mercy in Humanitarian Logics Arzoo Osanloo	112

Part II. Aid, Intimacy, and Humanitarian Praxis

Chapter 7. Humanitarian Departures: Reflections of a Refugee Aid Worker 131
Ilana Feldman

Chapter 8. Quiet Aid: Barbara Schöfnagel’s Private Humanitarianism in the Socialist Gray Area (and What Else the Global East Can Teach Us) 145
Cristian Capotescu

Chapter 9. Yūsus’s Struggle: Negotiating Development and Charity in a Palestinian Refugee Camp 161
Gözde Burcu Ege

Chapter 10. “They Are Mubajir, We Are Ansar”: Godforsakenness at the Myanmar-Bangladesh Border 176
Tanzeen Rasheed Doba

Chapter 11. “We’re All Humanitarians”: International Humanitarian Organizations, Islamist Service Societies, and the Practice of “Humanitariyan Jihād” in Kashmir 189
Cabeiri deBergh Robinson

Part III. Repair in a World of Care

Chapter 12. Red Coat, Denim Shirt: Conceptualizing Displacement across Generations 207
Rawan Arar

Chapter 13. The Barrette: Unlikely Humanitarian Images and Practices of Repair 222
Jenna Grant

Chapter 14. Memoir and a Sinking Ship: Reconstituting Humanity through Refugee Narratives 238
Megan Butler

Chapter 15. The Gift of Food: An Islamic Ethics of Care 254
Amira Mittermaier

Chapter 16. Mothering the Dead: Care beyond Life in Kurdistan 268
Mediba Sorma

Chapter 17. Unintended Consequences: Debating the Protection of Cultural Heritage during Humanitarian Crises 284
Stephanie Selover

Conclusion. Closing Conversation: Lessons in Humanitarianisms from the Global South	298
Arzoo Osanloo and Cabeiri deBergb Robinson
Appendix. Pedagogical Supplement: Thematic Pairings of Chapters for Teaching Modules	307
Arzoo Osanloo and Cabeiri deBergb Robinson
Index	311