

CONTENTS

List of Figures and Tables	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
List of Abbreviations	x
Chronology	xii
Introduction. Defeating Impunity in Twentieth-Century Europe Ornella Rovetta and Pieter Lagrou	1
Chapter 1. The Law of Military Occupation and the Belgian Trials after 1918 Thomas Graditzky	21
Chapter 2. The Claims of Belgian Deported Workers at the Paris Mixed Arbitral Tribunal in 1924 Arnaud Charon	40
Chapter 3. Coining Postwar Justice from the Margins: Exile Lawyers in London, 1941–45 Kerstin von Lingen	64
Chapter 4. The Treasure Trove of the United Nations War Crimes Commission Archives, 1943–49 Wolfgang Form	91
Chapter 5. Legal Imagination and Legal Realism: ‘Crimes against Humanity’ and the US Racial Question in 1945 Guillaume Mouralis	109
Chapter 6. Filling the Legal Void: Jewish Victims, German Offenders and Belgian Judges, 1942–52 Marie-Anne Weisers	133

Chapter 7. Soviet Footage of War Crimes, 1941–46: Between Propaganda and Judicial Evidence Vanessa Voisin	146
Appendix 7.1. Circular Sent to the Chiefs of Cinema Front Groups by Fedor Vasilchenko, Director of Newsreel Production, 8 September 1943 (Excerpts)	165
Appendix 7.2. Circular Sent to the Chiefs of Cinema Front Groups by the Director of Newsreel Production Fedor Vasilchenko, 3 December 1943 (Excerpts)	166
Chapter 8. From Majdanek to Demjanjuk: Failures of Justice in Postwar Germany, 1958–2009 Rebecca Wittmann	174
Chapter 9. Force of Fact: Municipal Authorities, Victim Associations and Forensic Science at the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia Isabelle Delpla	188
Chapter 10. International Law in Action: The Role of the Legal Advisor in Operations in the Twenty-First Century Chris De Cock	206
Conclusion Pieter Lagrou and Ornella Rovetta	231
Index	243