

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction. Biographies in Genocide	1
Eren Yıldırım Yetkin, Nazan Maksudyan, and Adnan Çelik
Part I. Methodological Questions on Biography, History, and Memory	17
1. Methodological Questions on the Intersection of Biography and Memory	19
Lena Inowlocki and Eren Yıldırım Yetkin
2. Biographical Approaches to the Study of the Armenian Genocide	35
Nazan Maksudyan
Part II. Lives in Genocide	49
Foreword to Part II	51
Fatma Müge Göçek
3. The Library and the Survivor: Writing in Exile after the Armenian Genocide	55
Boris Adjemian
4. A Biographical Approach to Genocidal Ruination: Knowledge, Nature, and Dispossession in Johannes Jakob Manissadjian's (1862–1942) Lifework	74
Nazan Maksudyan

5. Sahag II Khabayan (1849–1939), Catholicos of Cilicia, as a Witness to Massacres and Genocide Bedross Der Matossian	94
6. Remembering the Survivors by Name: From Angora to Philadelphia, the Perpetual Exile of Sourpik Tekian (1868–1957) Talin Suciyan and Paul Vartan Sookiasian	113
7. Reviving the Past: Postgenocide Armenian Memory through Song, Dance, and Photography Vahé Tachjian	139
Part III. Afterlives of Violence and Genocide	155
Foreword to Part III. Reconsidering “Biography” under Conditions of Genocide: A Prologue Yael Navaro	157
8. Dönme, Dönek, Double : On the (Epistemologically Troubling) Figure of the Islamized Armenian Alice von Bieberstein	160
9. “The Truth Is Bitter!” The Armenian Genocide in the Memoirs of Kurdish Intellectuals Adnan Çelik	177
10. Investigating a Genocidal Literary Style: Analysis of the Memoirs of Young Turk Leaders Duygu Taşalp	201
11. The Escape Route through Dersim: Remembering the Passage from Death to Life in Armenian Refugee Narratives Annika Törne	219
12. The Specter of the Armenian Genocide in a Family from Van: On Racialization, Gendered Narratives, and Intergenerational Transmission Eren Yıldırım Yetkin	248
Epilogue. Traumatic, Multidirectional, Implicated: Life Stories in the Wake of Genocide Michael Rothberg	267
Index	275